TRAFALGAR
rediscover the romance of travel.

Magical Holidays Pte Ltd A touch of Magic to your Journeys

London Week (Park Plaza County Hall) 2009

To help you get your bearings, we have included a half day morning sightseeing tour featuring Big Ben, the Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey and Buckingham Palace. This morning's sightseeing tour will finish in central London.

Then London is yours. Explore the British Museum, visit the City of London's business district and the Tower of London. Call in at Madame Tussauds or browse through the National Gallery in Trafalgar Square. Don't miss the Changing of the Guard or a River Thames cruise to Greenwich, home of the Royal Maritime Museum and the Cutty Sark, which is under restoration.

Shopping is just as tempting and just as varied. Department stores line Oxford Street and Regent Street. Famous labels parade down Bond Street and along the Burlington Arcade. Harrods and the many boutiques of Knightsbridge are surely a must. There are antiques and curiosities in Camden Market, Portobello Road and Chelsea's Kings Road.

And you can make the most of your stay with a selection of optional excursions, from Windsor Castle to Oxford's ornate colleges or even head out to Shakespeare's Stratford-upon-Avon.

Also included in Trafalgar's London Week are tickets to a West End show (please note tickets to all shows are subject to availability). Plus, the bonus three days' free travel on the city's central bus and underground network.

London is a city for all seasons, because there are special events all year round, so there is no wrong time of year. Any time is just the right time to visit London.

In what is traditionally called the off-season – Autumn and Winter – London shows more of its true character. There is as much to see and do as there is in summer. Museums are always open and the curtains of the West End theatres still go up on some of the world's greatest shows almost every night.

The main difference is that there are fewer tourists. This means more room for you to admire the city's pageantry and history, the museums are not so crowded, you can obtain better seats in the theatre, and there is seasonal shopping with some excellent bargains to be found— especially at Christmas and during the January sales.

Trafalgar makes London in the off-season irresistible with very special prices.
